

* AM I WORTHY? *

Written in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Brown and children

WORTHY? -- ah, no, how could I be
When I think of all He has done for me,
How He came right down from Heaven's glory
To bring to me Salvation's story.

WORTHY? -- ah, no, how could I be
When I see how from sin He set me free,
How He's kept me from sin's tenacious power
And has guided me to this very hour.

WORTHY? -- ah, no, how could I be
When His great plan for Me I see,
How He's chosen me to bear the story
Of God's great gift, to earth from glory.

WORTHY? -- ah, no, how can I be
When I see how He daily provides for me,
How He uses dear folks to speed my way
To rescue lost souls from night to day.

WORTHY? -- ah, no, how could I be
When Les and Helen are giving me,
Their love, so simple, so deep, so strong,
Their gifts to help my way along.

WORTHY? -- ah, no, how could I be
When Darlene and Carol are giving me
Their promised support in love and prayer,
Their desire with me this work to share.

WORTHY? -- ah, no, shall I ever be Worthy of this love bestowed on me?
Worthy of the love of God and man?
I DON'T SEE HOW I EVER CAN.

--- Elmer R. Warkentin